

641—69.7(135) Exemption. Renovation, remodeling, and repainting in target housing in which a lead inspector or elevated blood lead (EBL) inspector certified pursuant to 641—Chapter 70 has made a written determination that the components affected by the renovation are free of lead-based paint and where the person conducting the renovation, remodeling, or repainting has obtained a copy of the written determination are exempt from the provisions of 641—Chapter 69.